

Can you truly say that relaxing the current rules will BETTER serve the public interest? Until you can say that with confidence, backed up by sound evidence, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. The recent relaxing of the rules regarding radio ownership, and its aftermath, strongly suggests that relaxing the rules will not better serve the public interest.

Thank you,

Stephen L. Bourne